Get Rolling for Bike Month

May is National Bike Month, a great time to celebrate this low-cost, environmentally-friendly way to get where you need to go.

Throughout Southern California

- Pledge to participate in Bike Month at metrolinktrains.com for a chance to win an Aventon e-bike prize package.
- Cyclists can ride free on Metrolink during Bike Week, which starts May 16, when they bring a bike onboard.

IE Commuter Launches $5/Day Incentive

If you live or work in the Riverside or San Bernardino counties, you may qualify for special incentives for ridesharers.

New ridesharers may be able to earn

In Los Angeles County

- Win great prizes when you track your bike commute trips on ridematch.info during May.
 - During Bike Month, a 30-Day Bike Share Pass is just $1 (a $16 savings) when purchasing via the app or online (including on taptogo.net) using the code BIKEMONTH22.

Dodger Stadium Express Is Back

Baseball season is upon us, and the Dodger Stadium Express is again offering free rides for ticket holders to and from the stadium.

It runs from two locations: Union Station and Harbor Gateway Transit Center in the South Bay.

Get details at metro.net.

Save More on Transit

Skip high prices at the pumps and ride bus or rail instead. You'll save even more with these transit deals:

In Los Angeles County, low-income riders may qualify for a free monthly pass and/or half-price weekly and monthly passes through July 20 with the LIFE program.

It's only $10 to ride Metrolink all day on Saturday or Sunday. Now, kids ride free on weekends (up to three per paying adult). Another deal: Metrolink's 5-Day Flex Pass saves riders 10% over regular round-trip ticket prices.

OC Bus Value Pass, available through July 15, offers savings of up to 40% over regular fares.

Omnitrans is offering a free upgrade on its app, giving riders greater flexibility in managing their bus rides.

Fares on VCTC and Valley Express buses are half price through June.
