

ONTHEGO

News for Southern California
Commuters

Big News in Taking Transit

Metro's K Line Is Now Open

Service on Metro's much-anticipated K Line is now underway!

Metro last month opened the first segment of the new rail line, with seven stations that serve the Crenshaw Corridor, Inglewood and Westchester.

Eventually it will also expand to reach the communities of West Adams, Jefferson Park, Baldwin Hills, Hyde Park and Leimert Park.

Transit riders can reach the K Line via the E (Expo) line that runs between downtown Los Angeles and Santa Monica. Metro Bus Lines that connect to the K Line include Lines 40, 108, 111 and 210.

For more information, visit kline.metro.net.

Metro Offers Free Rides on Election Day

To make it easier for voters to get to the polls, Metro is offering free rides on all Metro buses, trains and Bike Share on Election Day—from midnight to 11:59 p.m. on Nov. 8. Find out more at thesource.metro.net.

Travel Swift as an Arrow

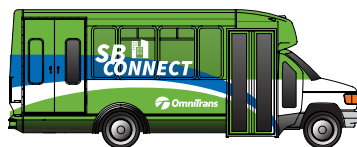

Getting around San Bernardino just got a whole lot easier—and faster—with the launch of the Arrow rail line.

This nine-mile track includes four new stations and runs between a new station at the University of Redlands and Metrolink's existing San Bernardino-Downtown Station. It features clean-technology train cars—seating nearly 120 passengers and reaching speeds up to 79 mph.

Arrow trains connect daily to and from Metrolink's San Bernardino and Inland Empire-Orange County lines. It is also served by sbX Rapid Transit, Mountain Transit, Omnitrans, Pass Transit and Victor Valley Transit.

Riders can transfer free to the SB Connect, which runs weekdays to County offices and courts.

In the Event of a Possible Railroad Strike...

If Metrolink service is interrupted and you need a rideshare option, call 511, visit go511.com, or find commute help including carpool/vanpool matching and transit routing at ridematch.info or IECommuter.org.

Free Rides on Veteran's Day

U.S. military veterans as well as active military can ride Ventura County buses for free on Friday, Nov. 11, Veteran's Day.

To qualify for a free ride, veterans should show their valid veteran's identification to the bus driver upon boarding any participating fixed-route bus service.

Veterans without proper identification will be asked to share their branch, dates and location of service with the bus driver.

Relief from High Gas Prices

California is sending money directly to millions of residents to help with rising costs and high gas prices.

The Middle Class Tax Refund (MCTR) is a one-time payment of $200 to $1,050. Those eligible will automatically receive a payment via check or direct deposit. Payments started in October and are expected to be issued through January 2023, according to the Franchise Tax Board.

For more information and to find out if you're eligible, visit taxrefund.ca.gov or call 800.542.9332.

OnTheGo for Commuters is a service of your county transportation agencies.